2.   REPORTS AND COMMUNICATION
   2.1   Superintendent Update – Craig Guensler
➤ Superintendent Guensler did not have an update because he did the update last week. However, he did share we are in the middle of having carpets done at Wheatland Elementary and they'll move over to Bear River next week. There was a massive flood at Lone Tree today because one of the pipes broke. The maintenance crew took care of it and it is now fixed. He also told the board he spent some time yesterday with the property appraiser for our insurance.

   2.2   Retirement Recognition – Craig Guensler
➤ Superintendent Guensler moved on to the Retirement portion of the meeting. We had two retirees to honor virtually. The District purchased Bells for both ladies. Craig offered best wishes as they enter retirement life. Both are long time employees. They are very excited, but will be missed at Bear River.
➤ Satoko (Coco) Smith worked many years as an essential part of the kitchen staff. She always had a smile for the students and staff.
➤ Leann Weldon has been a teacher in the District for 26 years. She was first hired at Far West. She worked at every school except Lone Tree and ended her time as a 4th grade teacher at Bear River. The staff at Bear River presented Mrs. Weldon's gift at a gathering at Peggy Rutter's.

➤ Craig thanked Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Weldon for all they've done for the students in the Wheatland School District. He wanted them to know they will be missed and hopes they will stay in touch.
