- Superintendent Guensler introduced Colonel Peterson as our new Beale AFB Liaison. Colonel Peterson introduced himself. He’s the Mission Support Group Commander. He has only been at Beale for 2 ½ months, but he’s been in the Air Force for 22 years. He started out with the B1 Bomber Pilots and has spent the last decade mostly at the Pentagon. He’s honored and happy to be serving on our board.
- The district received the bus grant of $165,000.00. We have ordered the new bus and we will use the $165,000.00 and the $25,000.00 we received from the sale of the bus to the high school to help pay for the new bus. It will include Air Conditioning and Video Monitoring. It will cost around $225,000.00 to $230,000.00
- Red Ribbon Week is schedule for next week. All the schools have plans to show their spirit during the week.
- We are adding an anonymous bullying button to our website. A report can be made and it will go directly to the administration so it can be investigated.
- There’s an electrical issue at the base that will require the electricity to be turned off at the school and throughout the base. We will sit down and come up with a plan when we know which day will be affected.
- The ELL group has a 5-part series called Nurtured Heart that began this week. The meetings are held entirely in Spanish, with 9 parents in attendance.
- October 31st is the 5th year of the Trunk or Treat activity in Wheatland. It is always well attended.

- A letter will go out tomorrow to all parents regarding a change in rules for COVID.
