

How to log in to your Chromebook for the first time.

1. Open the lid (or hit the power button).
2. Screen should show available networks to join. You may need to refresh by clicking on  next to the time in the task bar.
3. Enter your password for your home wifi.
4. Enter your five digit student ID for your username
5. Enter your birthdate as 6 digits. mmddyyyy.
6. Click on the blue let's get started button.
7. Click on Log in with Google. (Logs you in to Clever)
8. You will have several icons in Clever including a gmail icon for communication with your teacher. There is also an Edmentum icon which is where most of your work is done.
9. To log out of your chromebook click on the time in the lower right corner and select log out or the power button to shut down.